Alliance Notes.

ED. DEMOCRAT:—Alliance is prosper-ous. The repair shops of the Ft. Wayne road, located at Enon, are to be moved here, which will add about twenty-five families to our growing city, and largely increase the amount of money monthly increase the amount of money monthly disbursed here by the Pennsylvania Company. Many new residences are being erected, telephonic exchange, narrow-gauge railroad to be widened to standard-gauge, and numerous other improvements tend to encourage the citizens of the east end city of Stark genuty county.

The Democrats of our town are pursuing the even tenor of their way, and are sanguine of success next fail, both in State and county. I hear the names of several prominent Democrats of this district mentioned as possible Congresgood cement cellar, well and cistern, and coal shed; with corner lot 50x197, filled with fruit bearing trees. The house is in good condition and the lot well and newly fenced. Apply to Henry Beirwirth, Jr., No. 9 Liberty St., opposite Canton Cutlery Works, Canton, Ohio. Consideration $1400.

City Lots For Sale

I have two of this district mentioned as possible Congressional candidates, and among the number the name of R. S. Shields, Esq., of your city seems to be regarded with greater favor than any other. No stronger candidate could be nominated, and his election over McKinley would not be among the improbabilities.

The Republicans held a special along the improbabilities of the consideration $1400.

not be among the improbabilities.

The Republicans held a special election for Marshai here last Saturday. No Democratic candidate was in the field, but there was a very dark horse trotted out about noon in the person of Professor Artes, the noted Republican colored orator of Eastern Ohio, who received 70 votes to 157 cast for M. W. Lowman, the Republican nominee. The Professor says it was a trick played upon him by certain Republicans to degrade him, by runninghim as a candidate in opposition to such a light weight as Lowman, and runninghim as a candidate in opposition to such a light weight as Lowman, and not taking him up in time to enable him to get in his work. He says if he had known they would bring out his name he could have beat Lowman by 500. The Professor has a towering intellect, and as an orator, speaks on "A Tariff for Connection" that will lay McKinley's effort in the shade.
